

Monterey Peninsula Surgery Center

Instrument Processing Technician

Responsibilities include but are not limited to; Participates as a team member in support of the total perioperative process. Prepares operating room according requirements of patient/procedure to be performed. Supervises and directs patient care in a single operating room. Organizes nursing activities efficiently and effectively.

Required Skills, Abilities and Experience:

- Minimum of at least 1 year work experience as an Instrument Processing Technician
- Cooperative work attitude toward co-employees, management, patients, visitors, and physicians
- Ability to promote favorable facility image with physicians, patients, insurance companies, and the general public
- Ability to make decisions and solve problems

For consideration, we encourage you to complete the attached Clinical Employment Application and reply with your cover letter and resume.

MPSC, LLC., does not discriminate in employment on account of race, color, religion, national origin, citizenship status, ancestry, age, sex (including sexual harassment), sexual orientation, marital status, physical or mental disability, military status or unfavorable discharge from military service, and no question on this application is used for the purpose of limiting or excusing any applicant consideration for employment on a basis prohibited by local state or federal law.